

Tempe firm makes fastest-growing list

This story was written by Leslie Sonnenklar, a spokeswoman for CaseTech, Inc.

CaseTech Inc., a Tempe distributor of custom-designed reusable shipping cases used to protect sensitive material and equipment, has been named to the Inc. 5000 list of fastest-growing private companies in the country.

Inc. Magazine recently put CaseTech in its 2010 list of fastest-growing private companies in the nation, ranking it 77 in its industry and 958 nationally.

"We are very proud to be included in this prestigious list among so many well known companies," said Mauri Congleton, president and founder of CaseTech. "We firmly believe our growth has been fueled by our loyal customer base, which we have built over the years by emphasizing superior customer service."

CaseTech is the largest company of its kind in the Western United States, and one of the nation's largest, and has experienced a 311 percent growth in business over the last three years.

CaseTech serves a variety of industries, including defense contractors, aerospace, technology, medical, audio/visual, technology and the United States military. The 25-year-old company has six employees.

Information: www.4CaseTech.com.

NEWS BY YOU